

CULL EWES

Cull stock are a useful source of income for sheep producers and effective marketing can have a large impact on the value realised.

- Meadow Quality's Livestock Marketing Specialists can give you advice on the best strategy for the time of year when selling culls
- The weight and finish of a producer's sheep will be matched to the most suitable outlet so they result in the highest possible return
- Culls can be moved in both large and small batches to suit the producer's requirements
- The booking system is quick and easy
- Haulage is done by reputable, ABM approved, companies and charged at cost price
- All payments are secure and guaranteed