

STORE LAMBS

Selling store lambs on a farm to farm basis is increasingly popular. In 2005 Meadow Quality marketed over 20,000 store lambs. There are many advantages of buying and selling store lambs through Meadow Quality.

- Stock inspected and valued on farm
- Weight or headage methods of pricing available
- Large networks of purchasers and vendors across the country
- All payments secure, as transactions go through Meadow Quality
- Welfare friendly system
- Reputable haulage at competitive rates
- All breeds and crosses marketed
- Lambs for both short term and long term keeping
- Forage and cereal based systems both served
